Reflecting on our journey so far

Carbon neutral 4 years in a row 28.9 mn sq. ft.
of the highest-level green certified space

35 mn sq. ft.
of office space monitored through Infosys command center

49.92%
reduction in Scope 1 and 2 GHG emissions over the BAU scenario*

60 MW
of total installed solar capacity

57.90%
of electricity for our India operations comes from renewable sources

10.96 MWh/US$ mn
energy intensity for fiscal 2023

CDP climate leadership 7 years in a row

39 lakes
across our campuses, holding 426 million liters of rainwater storage capacity

100%
recycling of wastewater

400 deep injection wells
across our campuses in India , providing a combined recharge capacity of around 20 million liters

2,40,000+
rural families continue to benefit from our carbon offset programs

66%
proportion of spending on local suppliers (in India) in fiscal 2023

114 mn+ lives
empowered via Tech for Good programs in e-governance, healthcare and education

World's most ethical company recognized by Ethisphere for the third year in a row

~50,000 fresh graduates
hired globally

91% local hires

39.4%
women in the workforce in fiscal 2023

5.5 mn+ training days
in fiscal 2023

8.5 mn learners
enabled with digital skilling

ISO 27001:2013
Information security management standard certified

ISO 27701:2019
Privacy information management standard certified

ISO 14001:2015
Environment management standard certified

ISO 22301:2019
Business continuity management standard certified

ISO 45001:2018
Occupational health & safety management standard certified

* BAU scenario refers to regular operations without interventions such as renewable power or energy conservation initiatives.