

Infosys Technologies Limited*2007 US ANALYST MEET, NEW YORK*October 22, 2007*MC speech

Good morning ladies and gentlemen. A very warm welcome to all of you to our 2007 US Analyst Meet. We are very glad that you are here today and appreciate you taking the time and effort to get here. We would also like to extend a warm welcome to the people attending to our webcast through the Infosys investor relations website. The various presentations and transcripts from today's event would be made available for replay on our website.

All of you would have received the analyst's kit and you would find the agenda enclosed. We will start the event with an update on the business by our CEO and MD, Mr. S. Gopalakrishnan. That will be followed by a presentation on "Strategic highlights" by our COO, Mr. S. D. Shibulal. After that, we will have heads of various business units at Infosys make presentations about their respective businesses, the trends in the market, the opportunities, challenges and our strategies. At the end of individual presentations by various business units, you will also get an opportunity to ask them questions. An executive open house session has been organized at the end of the day where our CEO, COO, CFO and other members of the senior management will be there to answer any questions that you may have

If you want to ask a question, kindly raise your hand and we would provide you with the microphone. Since this event is being webcast, we request you to speak into the microphone. We also request you to mention your name and the name of your organization before placing the question.

Included in the analyst's kits are the feedback forms. We request you to take some time and complete the form at the end of each presentation as we value your feedback on the proceedings. Your feedback will help us improve this event and will give valuable suggestions to the speakers on various aspects.

On the right side of the entrance of this room, a communication center has been set up for you to access the internet and take print-outs if required.

Please use the coffee and the lunch break as an opportunity to interact with various members of our senior management team.

We now invite, Mr. S. Gopalakrishnan, our CEO to kick-start the proceedings with his inaugural address
