“Infosys is a strategic partner for Visa in our workforce and technology transformation journey. The partnership with Infosys helped Visa in establishing a new technology center in India within 10 months by helping us hire and onboard critical talent in the region. We were able to leverage Infosys scale in hiring and training capabilities while at the same time creating our own distinct culture. Another pillar of our partnership with Infosys is around technology expertise and resources in supplementing our R&D efforts. Our collaboration is in the areas of distributed computing, fault tolerant systems and high performance engineering. We selected Infosys as one of our strategic partners as they have global experience across industries, depth in technology and deep customer empathy. We also benefit from the investments that Infosys makes in software + services architectures and design thinking led service offerings.”
