Notes on segment information

Principal segments

The company's operations predominantly relate to providing Information Technology ("IT") services to customers operating in various industry segments. Accordingly, IT service revenues represented along industry classes comprise the primary basis of segmental information set out above.

Segmental capital employed

Fixed assets used in the company's business or liabilities contracted have not been identified to any of the reportable segments, as the fixed assets and services are used interchangeably between segments. The company believes that it is currently not practical to provide segment disclosures relating to total assets and liabilities.

Notes:

1. The above audited quarterly and nine monthly results have been taken on record by the Board at its meeting held on January 10, 2002. There are no qualifications in the auditors' reports issued for these periods.

4. There were no investments during the quarter ended December 31, 2001. During the nine months ended December 31, 2001, the company invested Rs 10.33 crore in Workadia, Inc., USA ("Workadia") purchasing 22,00,000 fully paid Series "B" convertible preferred stock, par value of US$ 0.0002, at US$ 1.00 each. Workadia will provide companies with comprehensive, customizable business intranets through browser accessed hosted portals and also offer consulting services to help customers select and deploy their intranet applications, content and services.
5. An amount of Rs 15.29 crore was provided for investments in Alpha Thinx, Austria, and EC Cubed, Inc., USA, during the latter half of the year ended March 31, 2001, when the investee companies filed for liquidation.
6. During the year ended March 31, 2001, the company transferred its intellectual property rights in Onscan, a web-focused wireless-enabled notification product, to OnMobile Systems, Inc. (formerly Onscan, Inc.), USA, a company incubated by Infosys. The rights were transferred for Rs. 8.93 crore (US$ 2 million), received as common, preferred voting and preferred non-voting securities in OnMobile Systems, Inc. The income of Rs. 5.49 crore (net of tax) arising on the transfer is disclosed above as an extraordinary item.
7. Certain accounting standards became mandatory for accounting periods commencing on or after April 1, 2001. The company adopted the accounting standards on segment reporting, related party disclosures and earnings per share effective the year ended March 31, 2001 and adopted the standards on accounting for leases and income taxes effective from April 1, 2001.
8. Consequent to the standard on accounting for taxes on income becoming mandatory effective April 1, 2001, the company recorded the cumulative net deferred tax credit of Rs 15.53 crore until April 1, 2001 as an addition to the general reserves. Deferred tax credits of Rs 3.69 crore and Rs 6.80 crore for the quarter and nine months ended December 31, 2001 respectively, are included in the provisions for taxation of the referred periods.
9. The accounting standard on consolidated financial statements became effective from April 1, 2001. Although Yantra Corporation, USA, is a subsidiary of Infosys as per the Companies Act, 1956 the financial statements have not been consolidated since the company does not have control as envisaged by the accounting standard on consolidated financial statements issued by the ICAI. The company does not have any investments in associates and accordingly the related accounting standard, mandatory effective April 1, 2002, does not affect the financial statements.
10. During the quarter ended December 31, 2001, nine months ended December 31, 2001 and year ended March 31, 2001 the Company issued 8,530, 11,130 and 7,417 equity shares respectively pursuant to the exercise of stock options by certain employees.
