

Infosys to set up Software Development Centres in Mohali, Hyderabad and Mysore

Bangalore, India – March 10, 2000 – Infosys Technologies Limited (NASDAQ: INFY), one of the largest software companies in India, today announced its intention to set up Software Development Centres in Mohali, Hyderabad and Mysore. These will complement its existing development centres located across the country - Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Chennai, Mangalore, and Pune.

"Infosys has followed a strategy of setting up development centres across the country, to tap local talent. We now have eleven Development Centres, employing over 5000 people. The three cities we have identified have an excellent pool of trained personnel as well as good infrastructure. We look forward to beginning our operations in these cities," stated Mr. N. R. Narayana Murthy, Chairman and CEO, Infosys.

"Infosys is expanding, and we will invest in infrastructure to keep pace with this rapid growth. We had started the process of operationalizing these locations several months ago. We are now satisfied that we can commence software operations at these locations. The Mohali Software Development Centre will be our first in the north of India, and the Mysore and Hyderabad Centres will give us a presence in two emerging software hotspots", commented Mr. Nandan M Nilekani, President, Managing Director and COO, Infosys.
