Outlook for the quarter ending June 30, 2001 and the fiscal year ending March 31, 2002

- Net revenues expected to be between $ 123 million and $ 125 million for the quarter ending June 30, 2001, and between $ 530 million and $ 545 million for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2002
- Earnings per ADS expected to be between $ 0.28 and $ 0.29 for the quarter ending June 30, 2001, and between $ 1.24 and $ 1.27 for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2002

Infosys Technologies Limited ("Infosys" or "the company") today announced financial results for its fourth quarter ended March 31, 2001. Revenues for the quarter aggregated $ 120.7 million, up 89.8% from $ 63.6 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2000.

Net income was $ 38.3 million ($ 17.9 million for the quarter ended March 31, 2000) and net earnings per ADS was $ 0.29 ($ 0.14), after making a provision of $ 0.5 million towards the company's investment in Alpha Thinx Mobile Services AG ("Alpha Thinx") in the current quarter.

"We had a very strong quarter," said N. R. Narayana Murthy, Chairman and CEO. "With the economic environment in North America becoming challenging, we estimate a revenue growth rate of 30% for fiscal 2002. As always, we will exploit any new opportunity for higher growth."

As on March 31, 2001, Infosys had 273 active clients, of which 37 were new clients added in the quarter.

"We are in constant touch with our clients. Several of them face uncertain economic conditions," said Nandan M. Nilekani, Managing Director, President and COO. "Our addition of 37 new clients is the highest ever during a quarter. These client wins were especially in the financial services and manufacturing sectors. We have a resilient business model that can meet the challenges thrown up by changing market conditions."

Dot-com and Internet, and telecom start-up companies accounted for 4.0% and 3.0% (aggregating 7.0%), respectively, of total revenues for the quarter – down from 5.8% and 3.5% (aggregating 9.3%), respectively, for the quarter ended December 31, 2000.

“As part of our de-risking strategy, we further reduced our exposure to start-up companies,” Said S. D. Shibulal, Director – Customer Delivery. “However, our diverse client base, combined with several high-quality new wins in the quarter, enabled us to maintain our growth.”

During the quarter, Alpha Think in which Infosys made a strategic investment, filed for liquidation. Pending the conclusion of liquidation proceedings, the company has provided for the entire amount of the investment amounting to $ 0.5 million in its income statement for the quarter ended March 31, 2001.

“We have a comfortable cash position at the end of the year which enables us to meet our strategic objectives in a dynamic market environment,” said T. V. Mohandas Pai, Director – Finance and Administration, and Chief Financial Officer. “We continue to focus on risk management, cost control and maintaining margins. Our business model enables us to aggressively invest for the future while maintaining liquidity, without materially compromising on the margins.”
