

Infosys Technologies Cited as a Leader in SAP Implementation Services by Independent Research Firm

High Customer Satisfaction and Ability to Provide Services Across the SAP Implementation Life Cycle Contribute to Placement

Bangalore, India, Jan. 3, 2008 - Infosys Technologies Limited (NASDAQ: INFY), a world leader in consulting and information technology services, has been recognized as a leader among SAP implementation providers, in a December 2007 independent report issued by independent analyst firm Forrester Research.

The Forrester report, entitled The Forrester Wave: SAP Implementation Providers, Q4 2007, states that "Infosys has the best pre-implementation process consulting expertise of any other pure-play Indian provider, and comes closest to successfully competing against the legacy multinationals in this area."

"Infosys' approach toward optimizing business processes enables us to deliver a high level of value to clients. We are pleased that our clients have reported high satisfaction scores in the report," said Chandra Shekar Kakal, senior vice president and global head for enterprise solutions, Infosys Technologies.

In addition to citing Infosys' strength in SAP implementation services, the report attributes the company's standing to its practice having "grown by 70% every year during the past five years," noting that "Infosys' SAP practice is aligned along verticals to ensure that clients get the benefit of its deep vertical process expertise."
