

Infosys and Nihon Unisys sign MoU for Strategic Business Deployment and Joint Development for Sales and Solution Service Offering

Alliance to leverage Infosys' Global Delivery Model and cutting-edge technology in Japanese market

Tokyo, Japan, February 19, 2008 - Infosys Technologies Limited (NASDAQ: INFY), a world leader in consulting and information technology services, announced that it has signed a Memorandum of Understanding for Alliance of Strategic Business Deployment and Joint Development for Sales and Solution Service Offering with Nihon Unisys, Ltd., Japan.

This alliance is the maturing of the June 2007 partnership between Nihon Unisys and Infosys to execute large-scale system upgrades of Oracle E-Business Suite for Nihon Unisys' customers. The alliance will also explore mutually beneficial areas where the Global Delivery Model can be leveraged to jointly go to market. These include joint solution/ product development and application development/ maintenance.

The alliance brings together Nihon Unisys' experience in the Japanese market and Infosys' Global Delivery Model, its experience in open systems, and its cutting-edge technologies and methodologies to deliver high-quality and high-value solutions to Nihon Unisys' customers in the Japanese market.
