

Infosys Technologies Supports Upgrade of Financial Operations Software for United Stationers

Infosys Helps Manage and Execute SAP ERP Financials Solution Implementation to Streamline Processes and Reduce Costs

Fremont, California – February 16, 2010: Infosys Technologies Limited (NASDAQ: INFY) today announced that it has assisted with the successful implementation of SAP Financials software at United Stationers to streamline finance business processes and reduce operating costs. In working closely with one of North America's leading broad line wholesale distributors of business products, Infosys helped manage and execute the SAP implementation from business case development, blueprinting, testing and roll-out.

“When selecting our integration partner, we not only looked for efficiency, experience and domain expertise, but also assurance and predictability that our business milestones would be met on time and within budget,” said Ken Nickel, vice president, controller and chief accounting officer, United Stationers. “Infosys has helped deliver a financial platform that has integrated our financial information allowing us to streamline business processes.”

As a result of the systems upgrade, United Stationers effectively implemented a centralized financial platform enabling it to manage its General Ledger, Accounts Payable, Accounts Receivable, Credit Management, Collection/Disputes Management, Controlling and Consolidation functions from a single instance of SAP.

“Infosys is committed to helping industry leaders like United Stationers,” said Larry Danna, associate vice president for retail, consumer packaged goods and logistics at Infosys Technologies. “With extensive large SAP-led transformation experience in consumer packaged goods, retail, and logistics, Infosys is well-equipped to assist companies streamline their financial and accounting business processes and platforms, enable tighter data and process integration across the enterprise, and drive the realization of tangible economic business value.”
