

Nandan Nilekani takes over as Managing Director / President and Chief Operating Officer of Infosys Technologies Limited

Bangalore, India - February 10, 1999 - Infosys Technologies Limited announced, today, that the Board of Directors, at a meeting held on February 10, 1999, has decided to advance the promotion of Mr. Nandan M. Nilekani (Deputy Managing Director) to the post of Managing Director/President and Chief Operating Officer effective February 11, 1999. This is in view of the various global initiatives that the company plans to take up in the coming months.

Mr. N. R. Narayana Murthy (Chairman and Managing Director) will function as the Chairman and CEO effective that day.

Mr. Narayana Murthy said "I am quite happy with the smooth transitioning of the responsibility of day-to-day operations to Nandan. This is in keeping with our philosophy of younger people assuming greater responsibility as we move forward. Nandan is fully prepared to assume the responsibility of Managing Director/President and Chief Operating Officer. He will also be the Chairman of the Management Council. My best wishes to him in his new role".
