

Infosys to contribute Rs 5 crore to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund for tsunami relief operations

Bangalore, December 28, 2004 - Infosys Technologies today announced a contribution of Rs. 5 crore to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund to assist the victims of the giant tsunami that ravaged South and South East Asia early last Sunday. In its effort to reach out to the tens of thousands of people rendered homeless, the company is also actively supporting its employees' efforts across group companies globally, to make monetary and material contributions towards aid operations.

Expressing his grief over the calamity, Mr. Nandan M. Nilekani, CEO, President and Managing Director, Infosys Technologies Limited, said, "We believe it is the duty of every corporate citizen to address the people's most basic requirements immediately in a disaster situation such as this. Through this contribution we hope to provide flexible resources to meet emergency needs such as food, water, clothing, shelter material and other supplies to aid the survivors."

"We also have a lot of Infosians who have expressed their eagerness to support relief efforts and our employee teams are visiting and offering aid to people in affected areas," he added.

On several occasions in the past, Infosys and its employees, have come together to contribute towards many worthwhile causes like the 9/11 WTC disaster, the Gujarat earthquake, drought relief and the Orissa cyclone.

About Infosys Technologies Ltd. (NASDAQ: INFY)

Infosys, a world leader in consulting and information technology services, partners with Global 2000 companies to provide business consulting, systems integration, application development and product engineering services. Through these services, Infosys enables its clients to fully exploit technology for business transformation. Clients leverage Infosys' Global Delivery Model to achieve higher quality, rapid time-to-market and cost-effective solutions. Infosys has over 30,000 employees in over 30 offices worldwide. For more information, visit www.infosys.com

Safe Harbor Provision

Certain statements in this release related to the Offering constitute forward-looking statements. This Offering is subject to shareholder approval, which may not be obtained. Although the Offering is expected to be made to our equity holders in India, we may be required to exclude certain equity holders outside India to comply with U.S. rules and regulations. Our business is subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could affect our future operating results including those described in our United States Securities and Exchange Commission filings including our Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2004 and on Form 6-K for the quarter ended June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004. These filings are available at www.sec.gov. Infosys may, from time to time, make additional written and oral forward-looking statements, including statements contained in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and our reports to shareholders. The company does not undertake to update any forward-looking statements that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of the company.