

INFOSYS NEXTGEN DEVOPS SERVICES

DevOps beyond just distributed technologies

Faster time-to-market, improved quality, reduced efforts, and decreased costs are some of the proven outcomes of DevOps. Today, many enterprises, at various stages of their DevOps journey, have already achieved these benefits for their new-age distributed technologies. Going beyond distributed technologies by adopting DevOps for cloud, packages, legacy, and all possible applications along with people transformation can result in true enterprise-scale DevOps maturity with a higher return on DevOps investment

With our extensive experience in DevOps advisory and transformation services coupled with a large pool of DevOps professionals, Infosys brings you NextGen DevOps Services to help scale and mature your DevOps adoption. Our hundreds of reference solutions, accelerators, DevOps engines, and platforms help you scale DevOps adoption at the enterprise or value stream level.

Now, with Infosys NextGen DevOps Services, you can reduce your DevOps costs while maximizing your benefits from DevOps as well as the cloud. Initiate a holistic DevOps implementation encompassing people, process, and technology transformation to achieve high speed, top quality, and secure application delivery.
