INFOSYS POWER PLATFORM CENTER OF INNOVATION

Infosys, through its Microsoft Practice, delivers a collaborative Power Platform Center of Innovation (CoI) service. We begin with a thorough assessment of your current Microsoft Power Platform adoption, establishing a robust foundation for enterprise-scale growth. Our proven framework and methodologies drive rapid solution development, empowering your organization to solve complex business challenges. The CoI acts as a strategic think tank, fostering innovation and accelerating your digital transformation journey.

This offering extends beyond mere implementation, focusing on joint IP creation and strategic innovation roadmaps. We facilitate design workshops, establish platform best practices, and ensure seamless organization-wide rollouts. Our services include automation, proof-of-concept development, and tools and accelerators to minimize tech debt. By partnering with Infosys, you gain access to expert-led guidance, ensuring your Microsoft Power Platform investment delivers maximum value and drives sustainable innovation.
